MEET SCOTT APPLEBY – LINEAR FORCE GOLF

AUTHORIZED INSTRUCTOR AT MISSING LINKS GOLF

With more than 32 years as a dedicated professional golf instructor, Scott Appleby has built a legacy of transforming golfers of all ages and abilities. He has coached numerous club champions and guided many juniors to impressive competitive successes, drawing from a lifelong passion and deep study of the game.

Scott is certified in Geometrically Oriented Linear Force (GOLF principles) and K-Vest technology. His physics-based teaching approach focuses on eliminating unnecessary compensations, helping students develop a truly repeatable, self-correcting swing that stands up under pressure.

At Missing Links, Scott elevates every lesson with cutting-edge tools:

- FlightScope ball-tracking technology for precise data on every shot
- State-of-the-art golf simulators available for lessons, personal practice, or fun entertainment
- K-Vest 3D Motion Analysis to capture and refine your swing mechanics in real time

These advanced features—combined with Scott's expert interpretation—deliver unmatched insights and accelerated improvement. Whether you're a beginner building fundamentals, a junior chasing goals, or an experienced player fine-tuning your game, Scott's blend of high-tech precision and practical, year-round instruction makes progress feel achievable and enjoyable. Experience proven results with one of Southeastern Wisconsin's most experienced instructors. Greg Nikolai has been teaching golf since 1989, when he joined the PGA of America. Over the years, he's helped golfers of all ages and skill levels—from beginners picking up a club for the first time to college players winning conference championships. As Head Golf Coach at Greg believes golf should be simple, enjoyable, and built around each player's natural swing. He teaches using the Manuel de la Torre method, focusing on swinging the club freely, staying balanced, and trusting your motion. His goal is to help every student feel more confident on the course—and to make practice something they actually look forward to. When he's not on the lesson tee or out on the course, Greg enjoys life in Grafton with his wife Mary and their two grown children, Lauren and Chad, along with their families. Golf may be his profession, but helping people learn to love the game is his real passion.
